2018 COMMUNITY SERVICES INSTITUTE

MISSION

Union members are members of their community. We develop leadership skills by educating our members and we encourage them to get involved in AFL-CIO Community Services and their communities

GOAL

Develop knowledge and tools to engage community resources

OBJECTIVES

1. Educate about the longstanding partnership between the AFL-CIO and the United Way
2. Establish/Strengthen your community service committee within your local union or CLC
3. Develop skills to conduct meaningful labor-based community service events in communities and effectively build community partnerships
4. Understand how politics affect your community and your life

JOIN US

1. Talk to your Local Union or CLC Leadership and tell them you want to be a part of this event.
2. Send in your Registration Form.
3. Call the hotel to reserve your room by June 10, 2018.

A General Session kicks off the event
July 11 at 6:00 PM.

The session will conclude on Saturday at 1:00 PM after THE GRADUATION luncheon and an important planning session for a Statewide Action.

REGISTRATION INCLUDES:

- Wednesday Welcome Reception
- Breakfast and Lunch Thursday - Saturday
- Picnic Friday
- Graduation Luncheon and class picture Saturday
- Materials and Supplies
- Certificate of Class Completion

In order to embrace diversity and be inclusive, we are encouraging CLC's and Local Unions to sponsor young workers for this conference.
