

Please join the Pennsylvania
AFL-CIO for our Biennial
Legislative Conference.

We will plan Labor's approach to the important issues confronting working women and men in our Commonwealth, and discuss how to advance and protect the rights of union members and working families in Pennsylvania, during the 2018-2019 Legislative Session.

We will feature breakout sessions focusing on pro-union activism, and on policy initiatives that we anticipate from our opposition.

We will also discuss ways we can partner with Governor Wolf to advance pro-worker legislation.

The afternoon general session will include time for unions to discuss additional legislative fights, and pro-worker, pro-job legislation that the labor movement can support.

We hope to see you there!
